

Workshop Agenda

CNAP-III: A Workshop on Models for Aging in Community

9:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Friday, March 29, 2019

9:00 a.m. Registration

9:30 a.m. Session 1 Welcoming Remarks: Joann Montepare
Director, RoseMary B. Fuss Center for Research on Aging and Intergenerational Studies, Professor of Psychology, Lasell College

Keynote speaker: Barbara Sullivan, Executive Director, Village to Village
Network

Q&A Discussion Period

10:30 a.m. Break

10:40 a.m. Session 2 Panel Discussion: Village Models – Structures, “Reasons for Being” wrt
Aging in Community, and Growth and Sustainability Issues

Moderator: Tom Mottl, Executive Director, CNAP Alliance

- Paid Staff Model - Laura Connors, Executive Director
Beacon Hill Village
- All-volunteer Services Model - Frank Caro
Founder, BrooklineCAN
- All-volunteer Community Association Model - Gary Fallick
Chair, Lexington at Home
- Affiliated Paid Staff Model - Paula von Kleydorff
Program Director
Carleton-Willard at Home

11:30 a.m. Session 2 Q&A Discussion Period

12:00 p.m. Lunch

12:45 p.m. Session 3 Building a Hub & Spoke Village in a Rural County - Howard Shapiro
Founder & President, Board of Directors,
Villages in the Berkshires
Demographic and geographic issues that shape development and operational features of villages on Cape Cod and the Islands – Susan Loucks,
Executive Director, Neighborhood Falmouth

Q&A Discussion Period

2:00 p.m. Break

2:15 p.m. Session 4 Moderator: Tom Mottl, Executive Director, CNAP Alliance

Panel discussion on initiatives focused on environments addressing aging in community in a broader sociopolitical context

- The Age-Friendly State/Community - Antron Watson, AARP Age-Friendly Director
- The Dementia-Friendly Community- Patty Sullivan, MCOA, Program Manager for Dementia-Friendly Massachusetts
- The Age-Friendly University (AFU) - Joann Montepare, Director RoseMary B. Fuss Center for Research on Aging and Intergenerational Studies, Professor of Psychology, Lasell College

3:00 p.m. Open Discussion on Future Workshops

3:30 p.m. Workshop Adjourns